16. Further Covenants of Tenant. Tenant shall take good care of the demised premises, appliances, personally and chattels and the fixtures therein and shall keep the said premises in a good state of repair and in a sightly, healthy and clean condition so as to comply with all ordinances, laws and statutes of any and all governmental entities, whether federal, state or local, having jurisdiction in the matter. In the event of termination of this Lease, whether because of expiration of the term or for any other reason, Tenant shall give up said premises and all chattels therein contained to Landlord in the same condition as existed on the day of commencement of the term of the Lease, less by fire, act of God and reasonable wear and tear excepted. Tenant shall make all repairs in and about the demised premises, as and when needed as a result of misuse or neglect by Tenant, in order to preserve them in good condition, which repairs shall be in the quality and class equal to the original work. Tenant shall not cause nor permit any waste, misuse or neglect with respect to utilization of water, and Tenant covenants and agrees to refrain from applying paste or wallpaper or any other wall covering to the walls of the herein demised premises without first obtaining written consent of Landlord therefor.

In the event that Tenant shall vacate or abandon the demised premises any time when a part or portion of the aggregate rental remains due or unpaid, or in the event of non-payment of any rent as provided for in this Lease, or in the event of any breach of any of the conditions, stipulations, promises or covenants by Tenant, as set forth in the Lease, the said Tenant's right to possession of the demised premises shall forthwith terminate, with or without any notice or demand whatsoever, and the retention or possession thereafter by Tenant shall constitute an unlawful detainer of the demised premises. In such event, and if Landlord so elects, and either with or without any notice or demand whatsoever, this Lease shall terminate. Whether or not this Lease is terminated by the election of Landlord, upon the termination of Tenant's rights of possession, Tenant shall immediately surrender possession, and Landlord shall have the immediate right to repossess itself of the demised premises with or without legal proceedings, and to remove, expel or put out Tenant or any other person who may be in or upon the demised premises, but said entry by Landlord shall not constitute a trespass or forcible entry or detainer, nor shall the same result in a forfeiture of rents that may be due or a waiver of any promise, agreement or covenant of Tenant as provided by this Lease. Tenant hereby waives all notice of any election made by the Landlord as referred to in this paragraph and further waives any demand for rent, note to quit, demand for possession, and any and all notices and demands whatsoever, of any and every kind of nature which may or shall be required by any law of the State of Florida relating to Landlord or Tenant, or in respect to any law or laws relating to forcible entry and detainer, or any other statute or law. The acceptance of rent by Landlord or any installment thereof shall not constitute a waiver of any matter or thing by Landlord in respect to the subject matter of this paragraph. Without waiver of any right herein or by law granted to the Landlord, upon default in the payment of rental installments when due, or default by way of breach of any covenant herein set forth, by the Tenant, the Landlord may, at its option, elect to declare the entire rent for the balance of the term, or any part thereof, due and payable forthwith, and may proceed to collect the same either by distress or otherwise in accordance with pertinent law and in such case made and provided. Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses and attorneys' fees which may be incurred and expended by landlord in enforcing the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, whether through legal proceedings, action of Landlord's attorney, or otherwise, which such costs, expenses and attorneys fees to be payable to Landlord immediately upon demand for payment thereof.

20. Remedies. All rights and remedies herein created for the benefit of Landlord are cumulative and resort to any remedy shall not be construed to be an election of remedies on the part of Landlord or to exclude or prevent Landlord's resort to any other remedy provided for in this Lease.

21. Knowledge of Contents. The parties to this Lease, by the signing and execution hereof, admit and acknowledge that they have read this instrument and every paragraph hereof, and have knowledge of all matters, things, conditions, stipulations, promises, covenants, and agreements herein set forth.
